SUMMER LEARNING PROGRAM REPORT

Marra Honeywell, Youth Services Coordinator, presented the Summer Learning Program summary. Funded in part by the Foellinger Foundation, the Friends of the Allen County Public Library, and the Allen County Public Library Foundation, this year’s theme, SPARK - incorporated Science, Play, Arts, Reading, Knowledge to express the variety of ways the library engages our community through lifelong learning and discovery.

By the numbers the program had: 16,037 program registrants, 1,800 individual programs, 33,000 program attendees in the library, 11,000 attendees at outreach programs, and a total of 12,051,173 total minutes read by our community.

This year 34 Team Read teen readers visited 22 locations weekly and distributed 6,200 books to children at Team Read sites which included: Wellspring, Fort Wayne Parks and Rec Playgrounds and Centers, Concordia Lutheran School, Boys and Girls Club, and YMCA Summer Camps. The Free Lunch and Snack Program in partnership with Fort Wayne Community Schools served 15,286 lunches and snacks at 8 ACPL lunch locations. Because of the Summer Learning Program 96% of caregivers reported that their child maintained or increased reading skills and 88% reported that their child reads more often.

REPORT OF DIRECTOR

Ms. Southard reported that as of Thursday, September 19, 81% of staff have participated in the employee engagement survey. Request for Services for the Design of the Rolland Center for Lincoln Research was posted to the library’s website and staff reached out to several architects advising them of that posting. A tour of the space as well as a question and answer session was provided to architects on September 19. Responses to the Request for Services are due by October 11, 2019. Curt Witcher was invited to attend the Rolland Family Foundation meeting in early September and was pleased to update them on the project. Kimberly Bolan Cullin will be joining ACPL as the Public Services Manager October 1. Kim brings to us a wealth of knowledge with over thirty years of experience as a library practitioner, consultant, and author. For library departments and branches, August is downtime between the end of the Summer Learning Program and gearing up for the school year. Some departments and branches reported they took a break from programming the month of August to focus on reorganizing staff workrooms, cleaning up public facing spaces, moving around shelving, planning fall program offerings, and shifting staffing hours to better meet afternoon needs for the school year. Managers shared before and after pictures in their monthly reports of spaces that staff worked hard on changing to better suit the needs of staff and customers. Many Managers reported that their staff has been continuing to explore Wise, and utilizing training scenarios on Niche Academy to better understand how the new integrated library system will operate.
